

Tamakoce Wilderness
Programs

&

Flying Deer Nature
Center

Have come together to bring you a unique opportunity to learn the secrets left in the trails of the animals on the Rensselaer Plateau

Animal Tracking Intensive

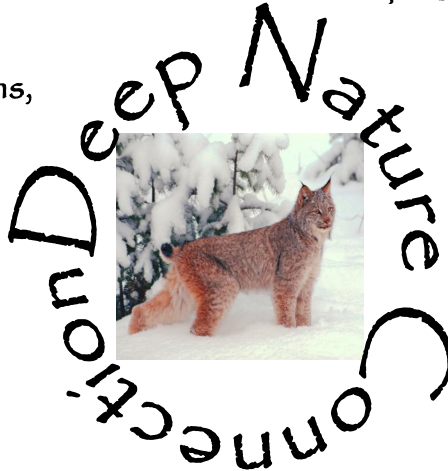

February 17-19, 2017

At Dyken Pond Environmental Education Center

Participants will get deep understanding of:

- Track & Sign ID.
- Using gaits and measurements for ID.
- Trailing
- How to use local ecology to find animals
- Where and when to look
- Aging sign
- Skull ID.
- How to apply what you learn
- Story of the trail

- 2 days, 2 nights
- Rustic cabin camping
- Experienced instructors
- Evening Programs, Activities
- Intimate Nature-Connection
- Challenging, Enlightening and FUN!
- Food and Beverages Included

More Info at:

tamakocewildernessprograms.com
flyingdeernaturecenter.org

Space will be limited so pre-register to reserve your spot
Register at: flyingdeernaturecenter.org/winter-tracking-intensive

Cost: $250

$25 discount if you bring a partner